Ratings: Long term ratings Downgraded

Rationale/Description of Key Rating Drivers/Rating sensitivities:

BWR has relied upon the audited financials upto FY18 and publicly available information and information/clarifications provided by the firm.

The rating draws comfort from the partners experience in the same line of business, relationships with vendors and suppliers.

The downgrading of the ratings has factored the decline in the overall financial performance of the firm, viz., decreasing revenue, strained liquidity etc. It has also factored the exposure of the firm to changes in the price of the agricultural commodity, seasonality of the commodity etc.

Going forward the firm’s ability to further improve revenues while simultaneously improving liquidity and gearing would be the key rating sensitivities of the firm.

Description of Key Rating Drivers

Credit Strengths

- The partners Mr. Jai Dev Gupta and Mr. Ajay Gupta have over two decades of experience in the same line of business and thus has gained understanding of market dynamics leading to a stable relationship with suppliers.
- The firm has over a decade in relationship with its customers.

Credit Risks:

- The firm's revenue in stood at Rs. 31.96 Crs in FY18 as against Rs. 35.36 Crs in FY17 a decrease of 10.6%, due to the reduction in the prices of the commodities in the market.
- The firms ISCR stood at 0.58x while DSCR stood at 0.24x in FY18, additionally the utilization of cash credit for the last six months stood at 97%, indicating towards the strained liquidity in the firm.
- The agricultural commodity market is exposed to price changes linked to the demand and supply of the commodity in the market and additionally the price of the commodities is also regulated by the government and any changes in the prices affect the bottomline of the firm.
- The firm trades in agricultural commodity, which are dependent on monsoons and also exposed to pest attacks and hence is exposed to seasonality risk.
- The firm's being a partnership firm is exposed to inherent risks associated with the constitution of the firm.

Analytical Approach

For arriving at its ratings, BWR has applied its rating methodology as detailed in the Rating Criteria detailed below (hyperlinks provided at the end of this rationale).

Rating Outlook: Stable

BWR believes the Dhaja Ram Jai Dev business risk profile will be maintained over the medium term. The 'Stable' outlook indicates a low likelihood of rating change over the medium term. The rating outlook may be revised to 'Positive' in case the revenues and profit show sustained improvement. The rating outlook may be revised to 'Negative' if the revenues go down and profit margins show lower than expected figures.
